

The Experts in Full-Stack Development

Full-stack development, an incredibly elegant art. Skilled full-stack developers are in high demand, so getting one might not go as planned. And some may not have the ability to cover all your project needs, now you are left with hiring multiple people on the fly and trying to create cohesion. In our experience, that usually doesn't go so well. At Poeta, we have a whole team, full of senior full-stack developers at the ready. Front-end, back-end, or anything in between for apps or sites, we have it covered from A to Z. Making your project look easy.

What We Offer

Expertise

At Poeta, we have the crew for you. Carefully chosen and dedicated masters in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery, PHP, Python and more. Using our distributed team model, we will give you the best talent for your project regardless of geography.

Your A-Team

This custom team will have its own Product Owner that will run point for your project. We find you the best solution and update you on its status while being responsive to your plans and any questions and concerns you might have. Poeta will be there every step of the way.

Adaptability

So your project is starting to get up and running, so now you wonder if you need the whole team? Not to worry, our teams are designed to adjust to your changes and growth, so after you are up and running right away and have all the support you need, we can scale back to your needs just as easily.

How Can We Help?

In a market of short supply and high demand, opportunities to have a full-stack development team are few and far between—especially a team armed with senior full-stack developers to tend to your every need. Offering a full service for front-end, back-end and all the key steps in between to get your website, software or application up and running using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery, PHP and more is a rarity. Frankly, it's one of the many ways we differentiate and deliver a beautiful client and user experience.

The benefits of having a dedicated full-stack development team gives you the ability to streamline your project and get it done with our team. Having one team work together and avoid hiring outside from multiple firms to build your team is an ideal situation. This will give a haircut on your costs as you don't have to outsource your work, eliminating the overhead of new staff for contract-based work. After designing your system, Poeta recognizes that the system's maintenance is crucial to product functionality. Our team is committed to not just building your project, but maintaining and optimizing it. We will consistently adapt to your wants and needs.

What are the Benefits?

Streamlined Product Delivery:

Having a dedicated full-stack development team allows you the collaboration, cohesion and flexibility through one entity to get your project done.

Constant Support:

Maintenance is essential to product functionality. Even after your team has completed building your project, our team's commitment to maintaining and optimizing it for ideal functionality

Cost Efficient:

Instead of hiring and paying multiple developers and outsourcing to collaborate on one job. Who likes taking on overhead staff for contract-based work while still allowing them to control the project? Yeah, didn't think so.

Adaptability:

A full-stack development team is fully equipped to handle all your needs and adjust to changing project demands.
